PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners of St. Mary's and St. John's/St. Joseph's,

The disciple asked, "Does God accept repentance?" The master replied, "Do you throw away dirty clothes?" "No," said the disciple. The master replied, "Neither will God throw you away." Anonymous

When I read this, I felt pretty good inside. I know that I am not perfect and that I am a sinner in so many respects, but the thought that God accepts my repentance, and that God will not throw me away makes me more anxious to repent.

When I go to reconciliation with another priest, I always feel that a weight has been lifted off my shoulders and I feel truly forgiven just by telling another priest about my sinfulness and that God has forgiven me.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation was something when I was growing up that was necessary weekly to receive communion at weekly mass. I know that we are more in line in our faith today, that God loves us no matter what. The God I learned about as a child wasn't the loving God we believe in today. But with the knowledge that God is a loving God, some feel that that Sacrament of Reconciliation isn't as necessary as it was. But know that people feel a weight lifted off their shoulders in the sacrament; maybe you might need a weight lifted. If you do, I am available at the Church of St. Mary on Thursdays, from 5:00pm - 6:00pm in the parish center and at the Parish of St. John Evangelist/St. Joseph on Saturdays, from 3:30pm - 3:45pm for reconciliation. And remember, God will accept your repentance and won't throw you away in the sacrament, and neither will I.

God Bless,

Fr. Tom

A Message from Bishop Scharfenberger

Dear Friends in Christ,

The Holy Spirit inspires each of us to find a deeper sense of our individual missions and then to help one another to discover them to serve each other. The Holy Spirit helps us put things together – how can the gifts that I have and the gifts that you have come together in a rich tapestry that is shared? This is Jesus' Church – Jesus came with a wonderful message that when we pause to listen, it is life transforming and energizing. The ways in which we do this as community and ultimately in our roles as Christians, is to introduce others to Jesus – don't we need this more than ever? We are fortunate to have a diocesan family to lift us together in these responsibilities. As you contemplate your investment in this year's Diocesan Appeal, I pray you are inspired by these small insights into the work by the Diocese on behalf of each parish. Your support of both your parish offertory and the Diocesan Appeal are the most fundamental ways to ensure the health and vitality of our entire Catholic community of 126 parishes in 14 counties, serving you in the day-to-day and milestone moments of your life.

God Bless!

+Edward B. Scharfenberger
