PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners of St. Mary's and St. John's/St. Joseph's,

From God's Little Instruction Book, Volumes I, II, & III.

"Kindness gives birth to kindness."

*"A kind man benefits himself, but a cruel man brings trouble on himself."
Proverbs 11:17*

That was in part what my homily was about last weekend. That is our hope that kindness to one another can bring. Whenever we treat people cruelly, it can only bring retribution to ourselves. The Lord wants us to treat people with kindness, and whenever we do acts of kindness to one another, I think it makes other people think twice about how they respond. Why are people treating me with kindness? But that is what God wants us to do. It is our hope then, in what the Lord wants us to do that kindness will give birth to kindness. I have always thought that way, thanks to my mother, who taught me that. So, let us treat people with kindness, instead of cruelty, and see what it brings about.

God bless us all,
Fr. Tom

WE PRAY TO THE LORD

The Parish of The Church of St. Mary at Clinton Heights and The Parish of St. John the Evangelist/St. Joseph

"Grant them, O Lord, we pray, and all who sleep in Christ, a place of refreshment, light and peace."

DIOCESAN APPEAL (BISHOP'S APPEAL)

Diocesan Appeal
Roman Catholic Diocese of Albany

2023 - 2024
July 1, 2023 - June 30, 2024

"Restore to me the joy of your salvation and uphold me with a willing spirit." PSALM 51:14

Again this weekend throughout the diocese parishes are being asked to reflect on their participation in the life of the diocesan church. Our parish community is not a stand-alone community; we are a part of the larger church. Our local diocese is committed to the mission of Jesus to take care of the poor, the needy, the young and old, to ensure we are formed in the faith, and the list continues. Our participation in the Appeal enables it to succeed. If you received a letter from the Diocese about the Appeal, please respond as best you can. If you have not heard but would like to, go to: rcda.org and click on the Diocesan Appeal tab on the bottom right or send it directly to the diocese: Diocesan Appeal, 40 North Main Ave. Albany, NY. 12203. There are also envelopes at the entrance of the Church. Thank you for whatever you can do.
