STAFF CORNER

Parishioners of St. Mary's and St. John's/St. Joseph's,

One book I like to read from time to time is "Epistles/Now," by Leslie F. Brandt, which is Contemporary, Restatements of the New Testament Letters.

One I recently read was 2nd Timothy 3 & 4 and it goes like this:

"We live in a world that appears to be rapidly going downhill.

Things seem to be worse rather than better.

And this is in spite of the countless Christians who are faithfully serving God and man in their respective posts in every nation on this globe.

It may be because there are more people now or that so many of their bizarre activities are reported through the world-embracing media of our day, but there appears to be more pride and hate and rebelliousness and ingratitude and violence and prejudice and self-serving than ever before.

But at the risk of life and limb, of property and possessions, we are to proclaim and reflect and demonstrate God as revealed through Christ.

We cannot hide away in holy sanctuaries.

As Christ descended into our chaos - lived and died in the midst of our madness - so we are to reflect the love and sanity of God's will and order in our insane world.

How else can God's saving love for mankind be revealed except through His redeemed children now upon this planet?

Our task is not to convert or change the people to whom we witness.

We are to reveal a loving God, a living Christ, to these people through our verbal witnessing and our loving concern.

God will take it from there and many out of this world's multitudes will be brought back to the heart of God and know the joy that we have found and daily experience as his children and his ministers."

True the world is in chaos from COVID, economies, the war in Ukraine, poverty abounding, hatred and prejudice seems at an all-time high; but if we as individual Christians reveal a loving God, a living Christ through our words and loving concern for each other, we can make a difference in our world. We just have to live out Christ's words and actions to make that difference. Sure, we are all different, but Christ needs to be our focal point in life and how we go about living. Something to think about.

God Bless,

Fr. Tom

AN EVENING OF REFLECTION FOR CAREGIVERS

Rescheduled - Come Aside and Rest Awhile

Come to me all who labor and are heavy burdened and I will give you rest.....

Caregiving can be a beautiful gift that we give to others, but it can also be tiring and can lead to a condition called Compassion Fatigue. If you are a caregiver of any kind, come spend some time renewing your strength and nourish yourself physically, mentally and spiritually through prayer, music, meditation and sharing.

PASTORAL CARE OF OUR ELDERLY

Our Elderly

It is very important that our elderly know that they are an integral part of our parishes. Our Pastoral Care Teams reach out to them through sending cards, phone and in-person visits, and bringing Holy Communion to those who desire it. If you know of any family member, friend or neighbor, whether living at home, in elder residences or nursing homes who are not in contact with St. John & St. Joseph Parish or St. Mary's Parish, please let us know. Just call the parish office and the information will be forwarded to Ann Marie Pepin, CSM or Carol Davitt, SJESJ. We will respond to whatever makes them happiest and let them know they are not forgotten.

Team Members

Do you have some time to write a card, make a phone call or visit our elderly? Are you a Eucharistic Minister who would be willing to bring Communion to them? We are always looking for new Pastoral Care Team members. The type of involvement and amount of time donated are entirely up to you. Ann Marie and Carol would be happy to speak to you about the joy of service. Just call the parish office - CSM - 518-449-2232 or SJESJ - 518-465-0482.
