THE SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners of St. John's/St. Joseph's and St. Mary's,

"The path of the Christian life often leads in the opposite direction of the world around us." — Anonymous

The life of people who live out Christ's principles of a Truly Christian Life, will always be countercultural. Jesus was countercultural in His time, and we all must as well.

We are bombarded daily with what will make us happy, things we need to have to make our life perfect, or we need to get this product to make our life complete. We are obsessed with money it seems. If we have enough money to live a comfortable life, that should be enough. People who talk about money all the time make it clear what is most important in their lives and really by their talking kind of tell others where Christ and His teachings fit in their priorities.

It is kind of thought-provoking as I think back over my life. As I shared with you before, my two brothers and I lost our father when I was eight years old. My mom worked in the factory at GE in Schenectady for thirty-nine years and things were always tight moneywise. My mom always instilled in us that God will provide and in fact we had all we needed and never knew we were lacking anything, mainly because we didn't know what we were lacking.

So, as a result, money hasn't been my main priority. Helping people, loving people, and appreciating people's generosity with their funds to the less fortunate, generosity with their talents and time, have always meant more to me.

A Christian life then is not all about "ME," it's all about others and how we can enrich or help others who need our help. In our world today, that is still as countercultural as it was in Jesus' time. God needs to use us all to help to provide. I am very impressed how many people in our faith communities provide for others in small ways and in big ways.

God Bless,

Fr. Tom

BLUE CHRISTMAS PRAYER SERVICE

Thursday, December 8, 2022 at 6:30pm - Advent Prayer and Reflection at Sacred Heart - 3 Catholic Way, Castleton

The season of Advent is meant to be a season of preparation and anticipation as we await the joyous celebration of the birth of the Christ child. Unfortunately, the reality for some is that this time of year brings feelings of loneliness and loss that can result from the passing of a loved one, a broken relationship, an unanticipated illness and this past year the uncertainty in our lives that have resulted from the ongoing tension in the world. This gathering is meant to provide an opportunity for anyone to come together in Church to support and pray as a community as we seek the comfort that can only be realized when we are able to release our personal struggles to God.
