PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners of St. Mary's and St. John's/St. Joseph's,

From God's Little instruction Book, Volumes I, II & III:

"Your temper is like a fire.
It gets very destructive when it gets out of control."

*He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.
Proverbs 25:28*

My temper goes up while traveling on Columbia Turnpike. I always follow the speed limit, because I see people pulled over by the Police all the time, and I don't want to get a speeding ticket. I don't get why people can't follow speed limits. People blow me off the road while I go the speed limit, and especially with pick-up trucks. Where the speed limit is 35MPH, people wiz by me. My temper will not change others going over the speed limit. I also lose my temper when people are passive- aggressive with me. I don't get it. But at the same time my temper will not change people being passive-aggressive. So, I just must keep my temper in control, because in the end I can't change anyone's behavior by losing my temper.

God Bless,

Fr. Tom
